The Light Giver

"The Master is with you, always. In all times and places. He shares your joys and sorrows; he lightens the burden of fear from life's changes. Yes, he's always here with you.

He rides on the celestial winds of God's Sound and Light, so listen and watch for him there. Find him in the secret places of the garden of your consciousness. It's holy ground.

When all others fail and tremble as the trials of living become too great for their faith, you know and see the promise of God's ever-present love. The Mahanta is here with you, in all times and places. His dear presence is the source of a chela's [student's] hopes and dreams, and yes, even of courage."

—Harold Klemp, The Spiritual Laws of Life,
2nd ed., p. 178

Date: November 2

Time: 11:00 AM

Create a Brighter World

"When you're in Eckankar, the creative fountain is going to open up inside you, and you're going to find some way to give, to let this creativity out.

The creative element that Soul is, is the creative side of God in a sense, the divine spark. This is divinity in expression—something that creates for the good of all."

—Harold Klemp, The Road to Spiritual Freedom,
Mahanta Transcripts, Book 17, p. 295

Date: December 7

Time: 11:00 AM

Recognizing God's Help in Your Life

"...Sometimes God's help and love is so commonplace that we don't recognize it until someone points it out...."

"...Listen to the people around you. Because, after all, if someone's telling you something that is spiritual and positive, this is from the Voice of God."

—Harold Klemp, The Secret of Love, Mahanta Transcripts,
Book 14, pp. 63 & 81
